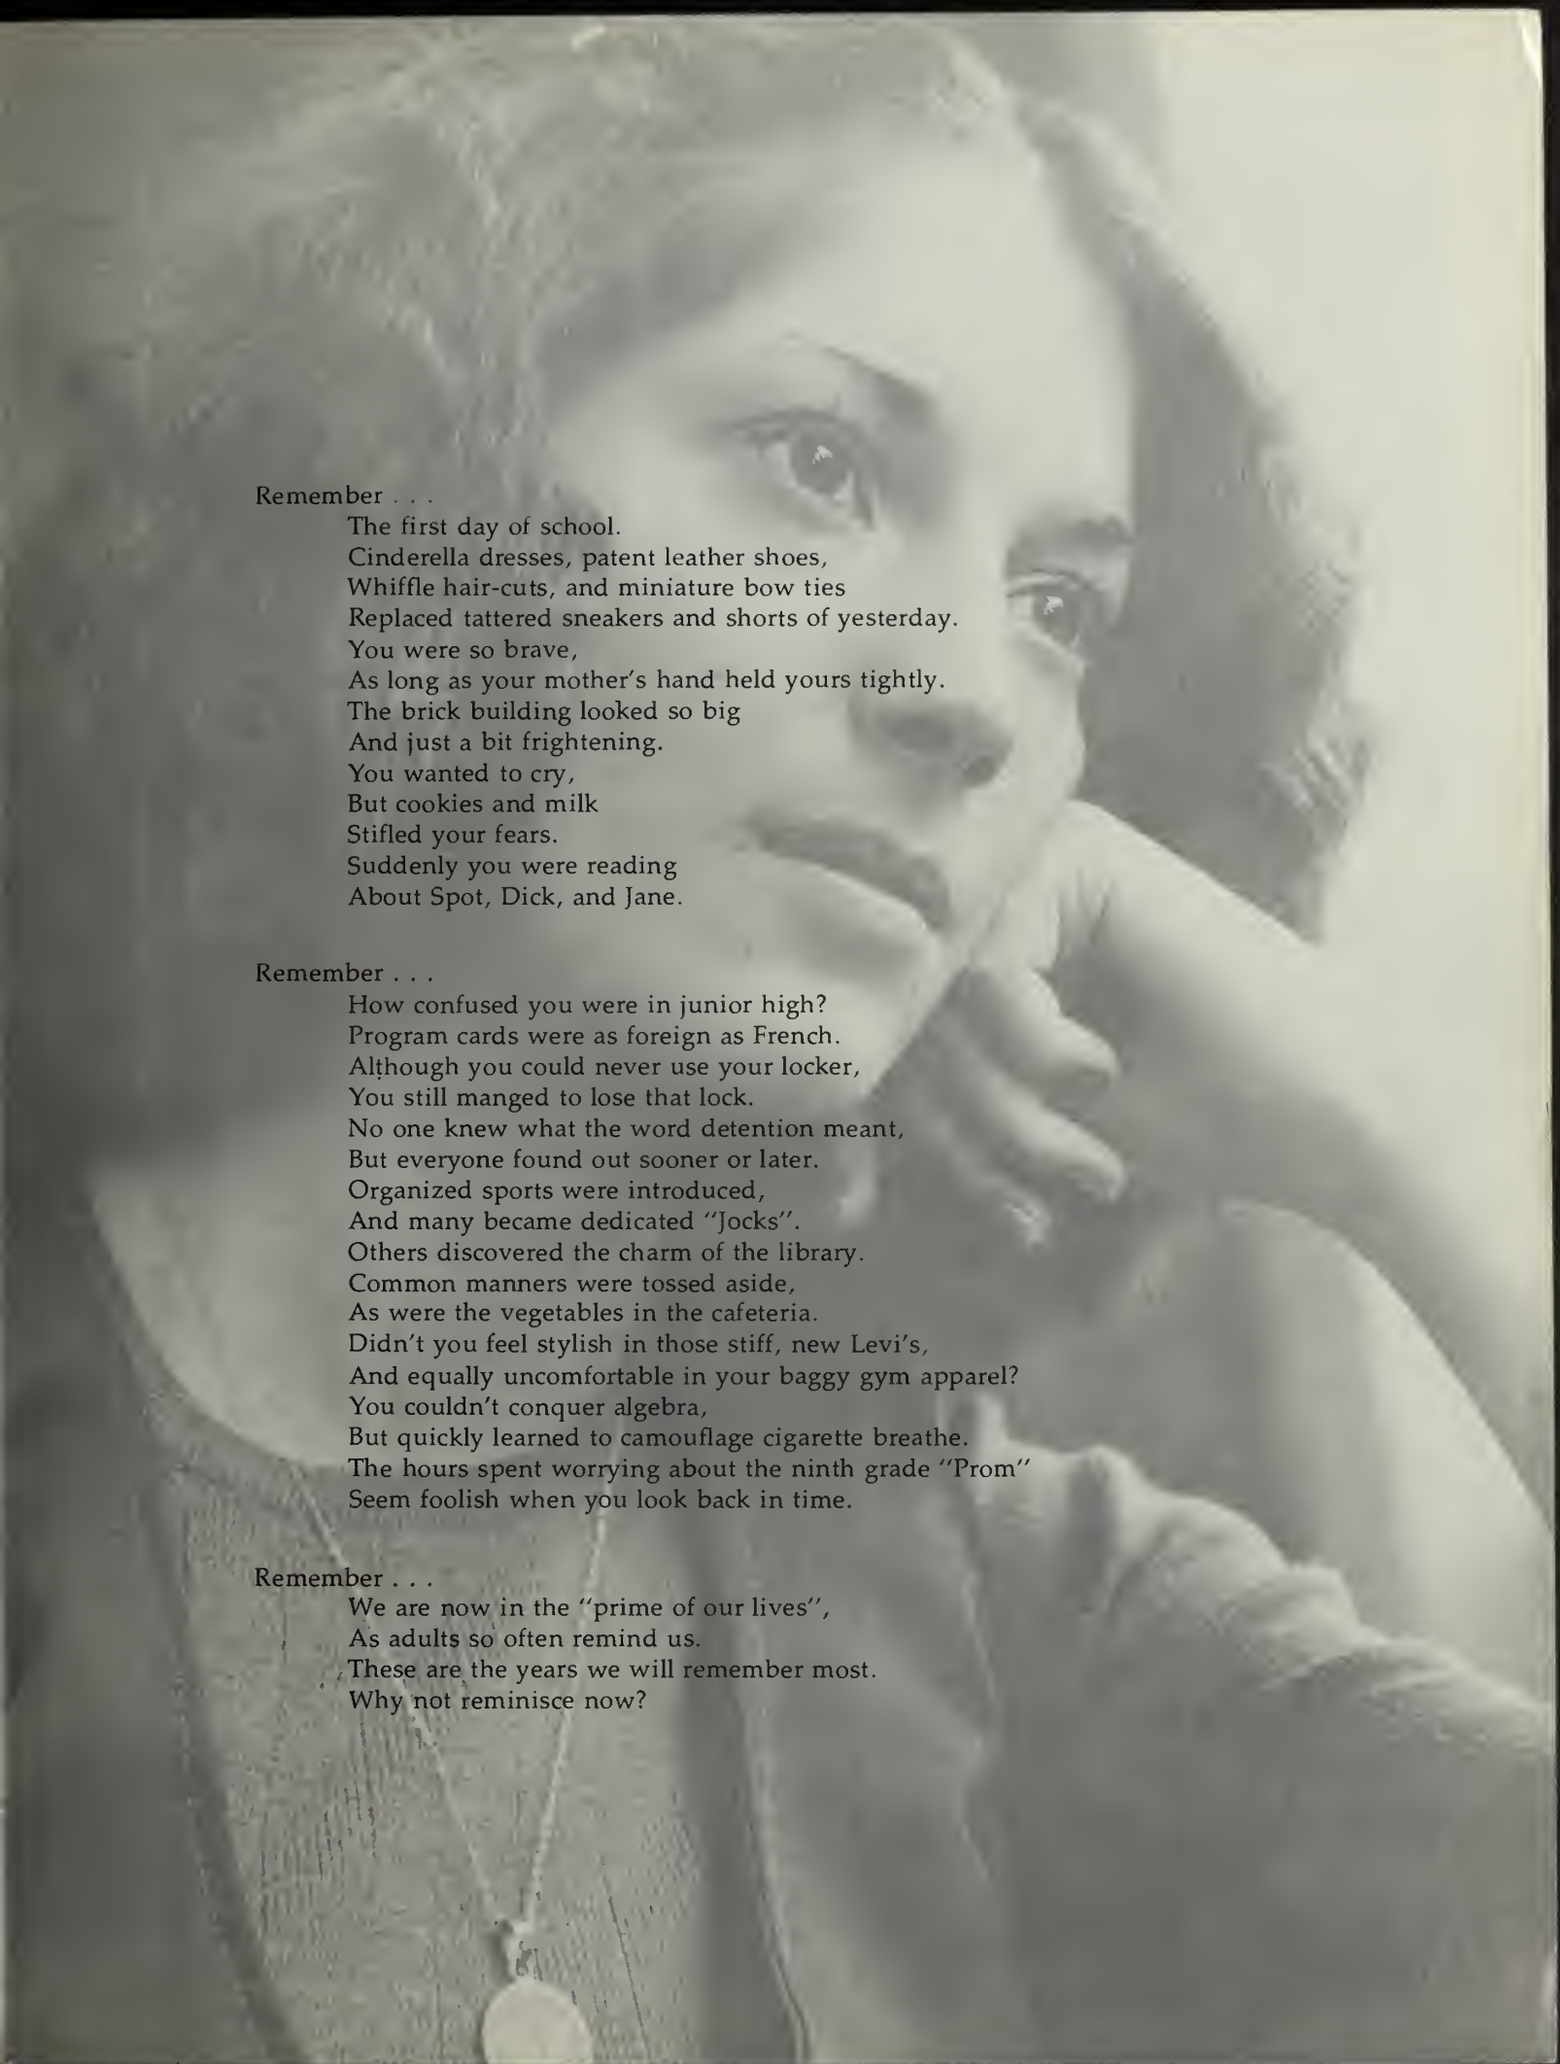
Weymouth North and Weymouth Vocational Technical High Schools 1978

JUN 16 '78



Remember . . .

The first day of school.
Cinderella dresses, patent leather shoes,
Whiffle hair-cuts, and miniature bow ties
Replaced tattered sneakers and shorts of yesterday.
You were so brave,
As long as your mother's hand held yours tightly.
The brick building looked so big
And just a bit frightening.
You wanted to cry,
But cookies and milk
Stifled your fears.
Suddenly you were reading
About Spot, Dick, and Jane.

Remember . . .

How confused you were in junior high?
Program cards were as foreign as French.
Although you could never use your locker,
You still manged to lose that lock.
No one knew what the word detention meant,
But everyone found out sooner or later.
Organized sports were introduced,
And many became dedicated "Jocks".
Others discovered the charm of the library.
Common manners were tossed aside,
As were the vegetables in the cafeteria.
Didn't you feel stylish in those stiff, new Levi's,
And equally uncomfortable in your baggy gym apparel?
You couldn't conquer algebra,
But quickly learned to camouflage cigarette breathe.
The hours spent worrying about the ninth grade "Prom"
Seem foolish when you look back in time.

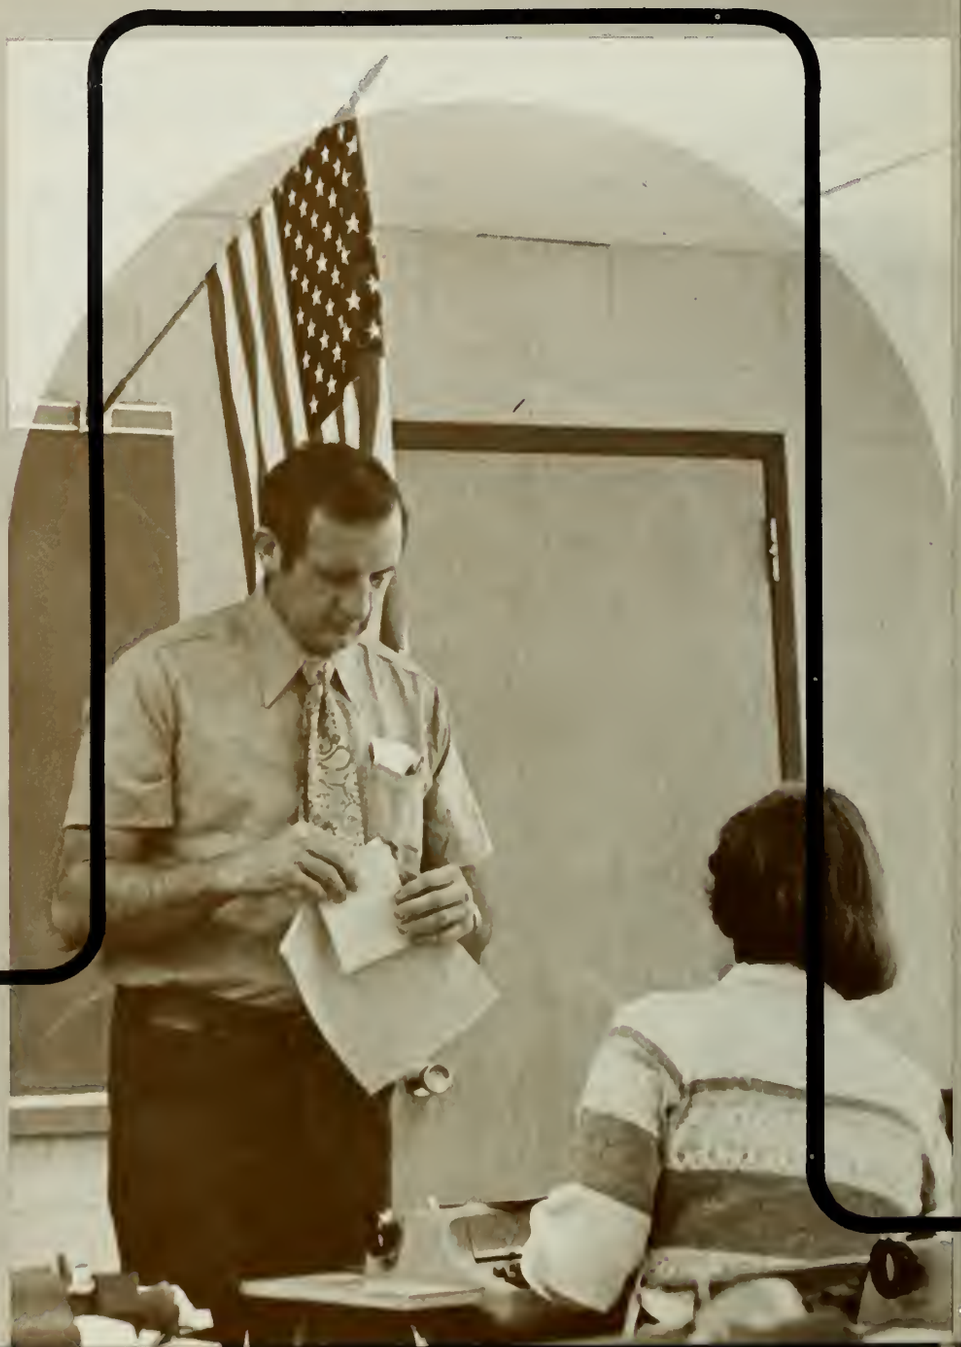
Remember . . .

We are now in the "prime of our lives",
As adults so often remind us.
These are the years we will remember most.
Why not reminisce now?

Remember .....

The quiet times
When you chose to be alone.
And special days
You wanted to share with the world.

Recall the personalities
That you have encountered,
And the valuable lessons
You have learned from each one.



Few friendships
Will last forever,
But fond memories
Will linger in your hearts.

Remember . . . . . .

W

Remember

You walked through leaves in October
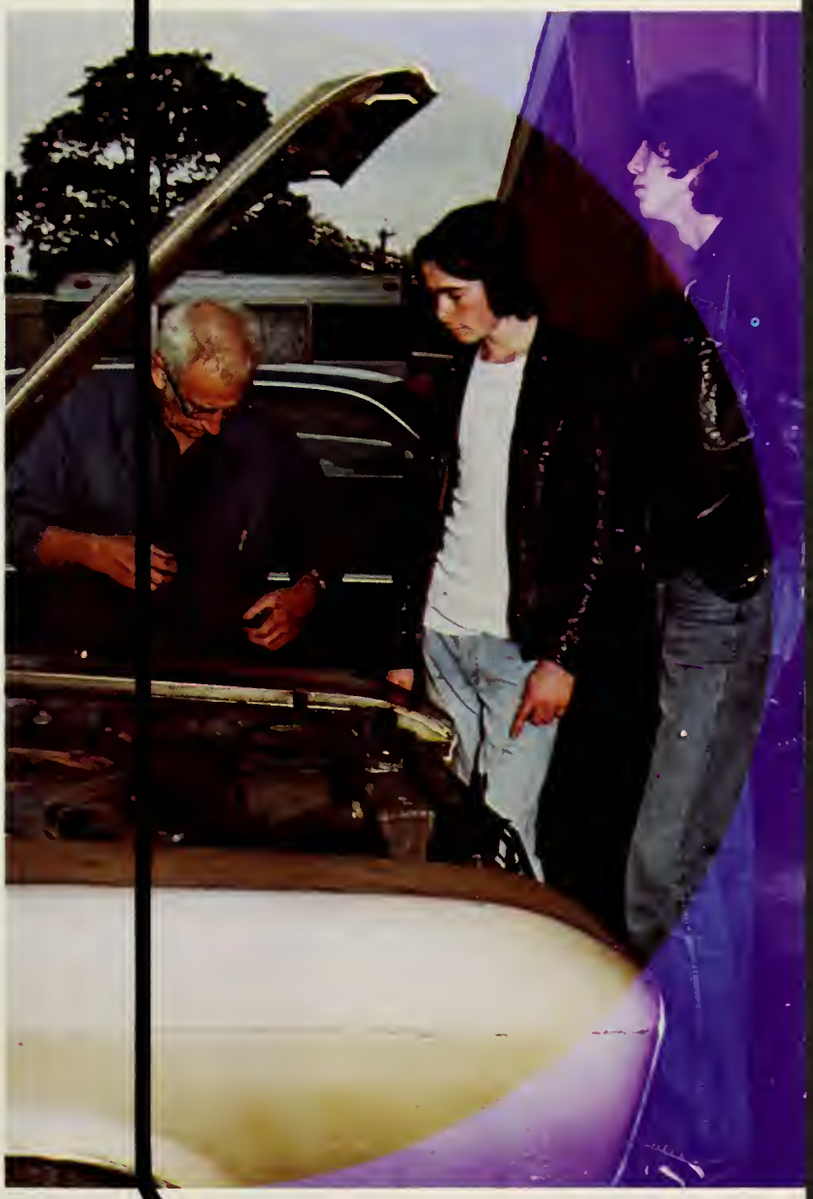
And ran in winter's cold wind.
Spring fever hit you the hardest,
When it forecasted days in the sun.

Remember



How hard you worked
On each project you started,
And how you hoped That your talents would equal your dreams.

Remember . . . . . .

Each fall school reopened amidst excitement.
Soon you became programmed again.
Despite your continuous grumbling,
School was at times your second home.

Remember . . . . . .

How hard you tried
To convince yourself
That keeping your eyes and ears open
Would someday be worthwhile.

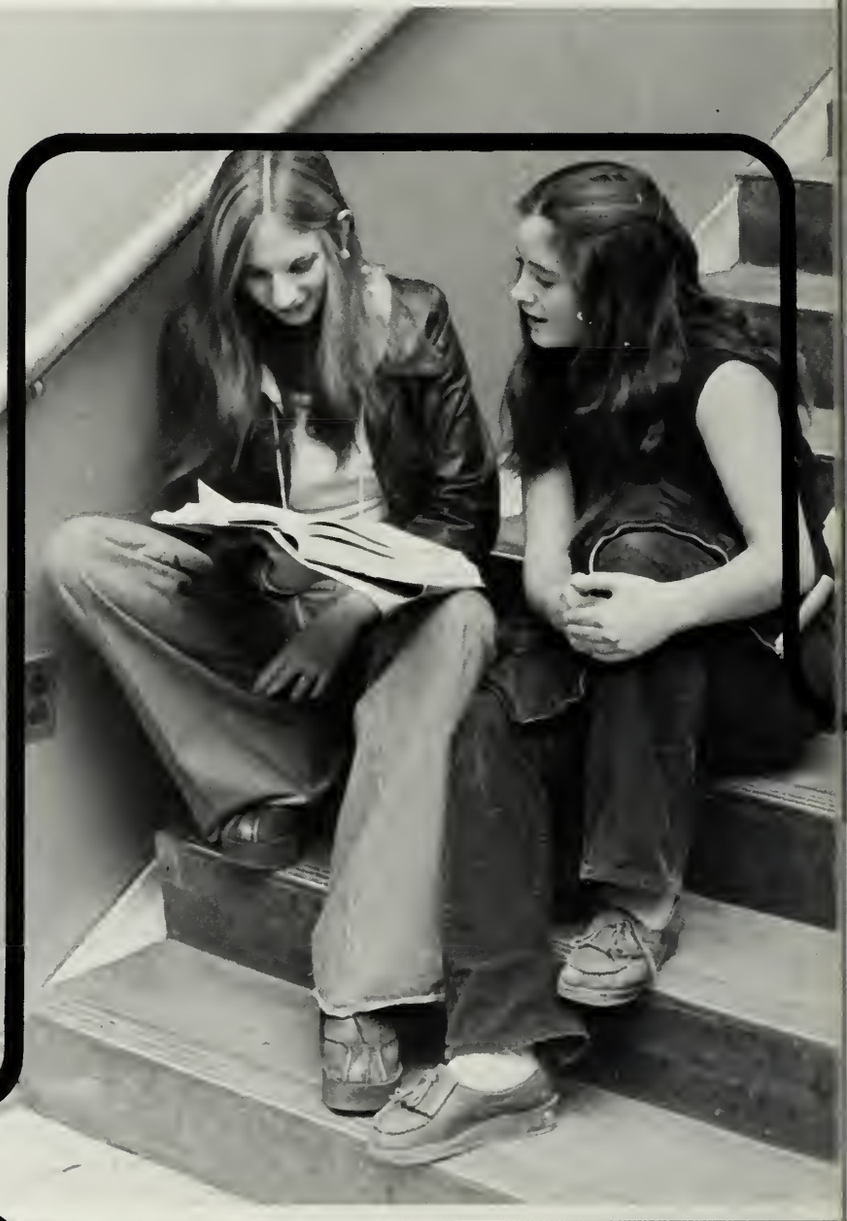
SENIORS

SENIORSENIORSENIORSEN



Recall . . .

the most outstanding moments of our high school days. As sophomores we immediately adapted to the new environment of high school. It was different having permission to smoke at lunch, and there were many science and foreign language labs in which to experiment. Soon we were accustomed to the familiar buzz of the fire alarms.

As juniors we became card sharks thanks to Monte Carlo Night, and we learned all about Broadway through our own hit, The Gong Show. We sat in darkness for five periods and ate cold lettuce sandwiches during the Blackout. Our junior year ended with a new attendance policy which was cast aside until September.

Our last year opened with several surprises. Little did we know that our first concert would be our last, and we had no idea that the attendance policy would lead to the Walkout. On our first day of gym we were astounded to have "Human Sexuality and Social Responsibilities" thrown in our faces. Many kids were having fun under the overhang, planning parties at Whiskey Point, The Pits, and Emery's.

Many of us stopped eating junk food to keep the blemishes from spoiling our senior portraits, but worrying about SAT's didn't help matters. Then we decided to raise money by selling chocolate bars, and we were our own best customers! Our complexions mirrored our financial success. The only solution was to purchase Weymouth North ski hats, pull them down over our faces, and hide all together.

We will never forget our senior class play, "Anything Goes," because it wasn't the only thing going . . . so was Mr. Kearns. His leaving was almost like canceling The Johnny Carson Show.

All of these experiences allow the members of the class of 1978 to be individual shining stars.

To make us a most unique group we have decided to let ". . . the last be first and the first be last . . ."

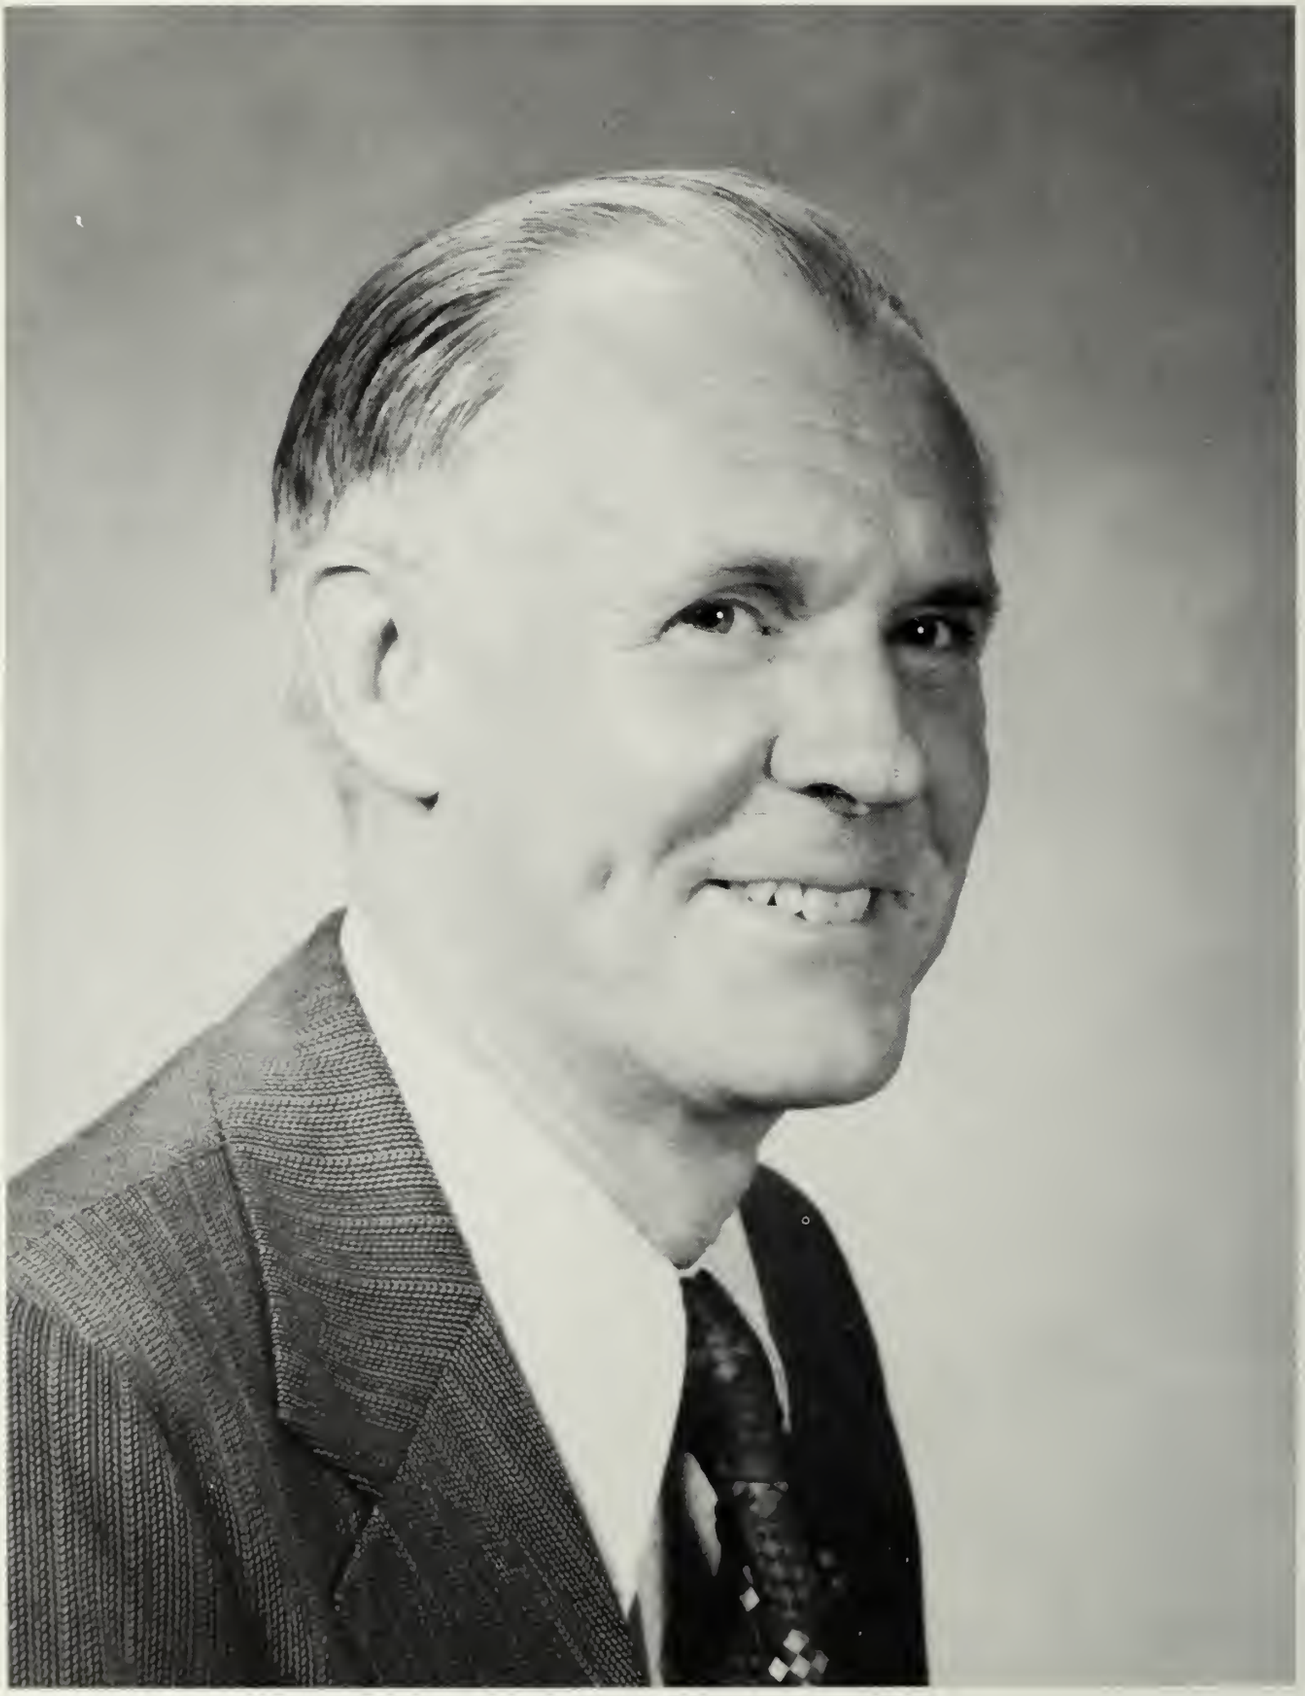
Recollect . . .

The most important people in our school years, the teachers. Some of us may groan at the mention of the word, "teacher," but as we reflect upon our school years we realize that they weren't so "bad" after all. Although we seldom admit it, we do appreciate the teachers and all the work they have done for us.

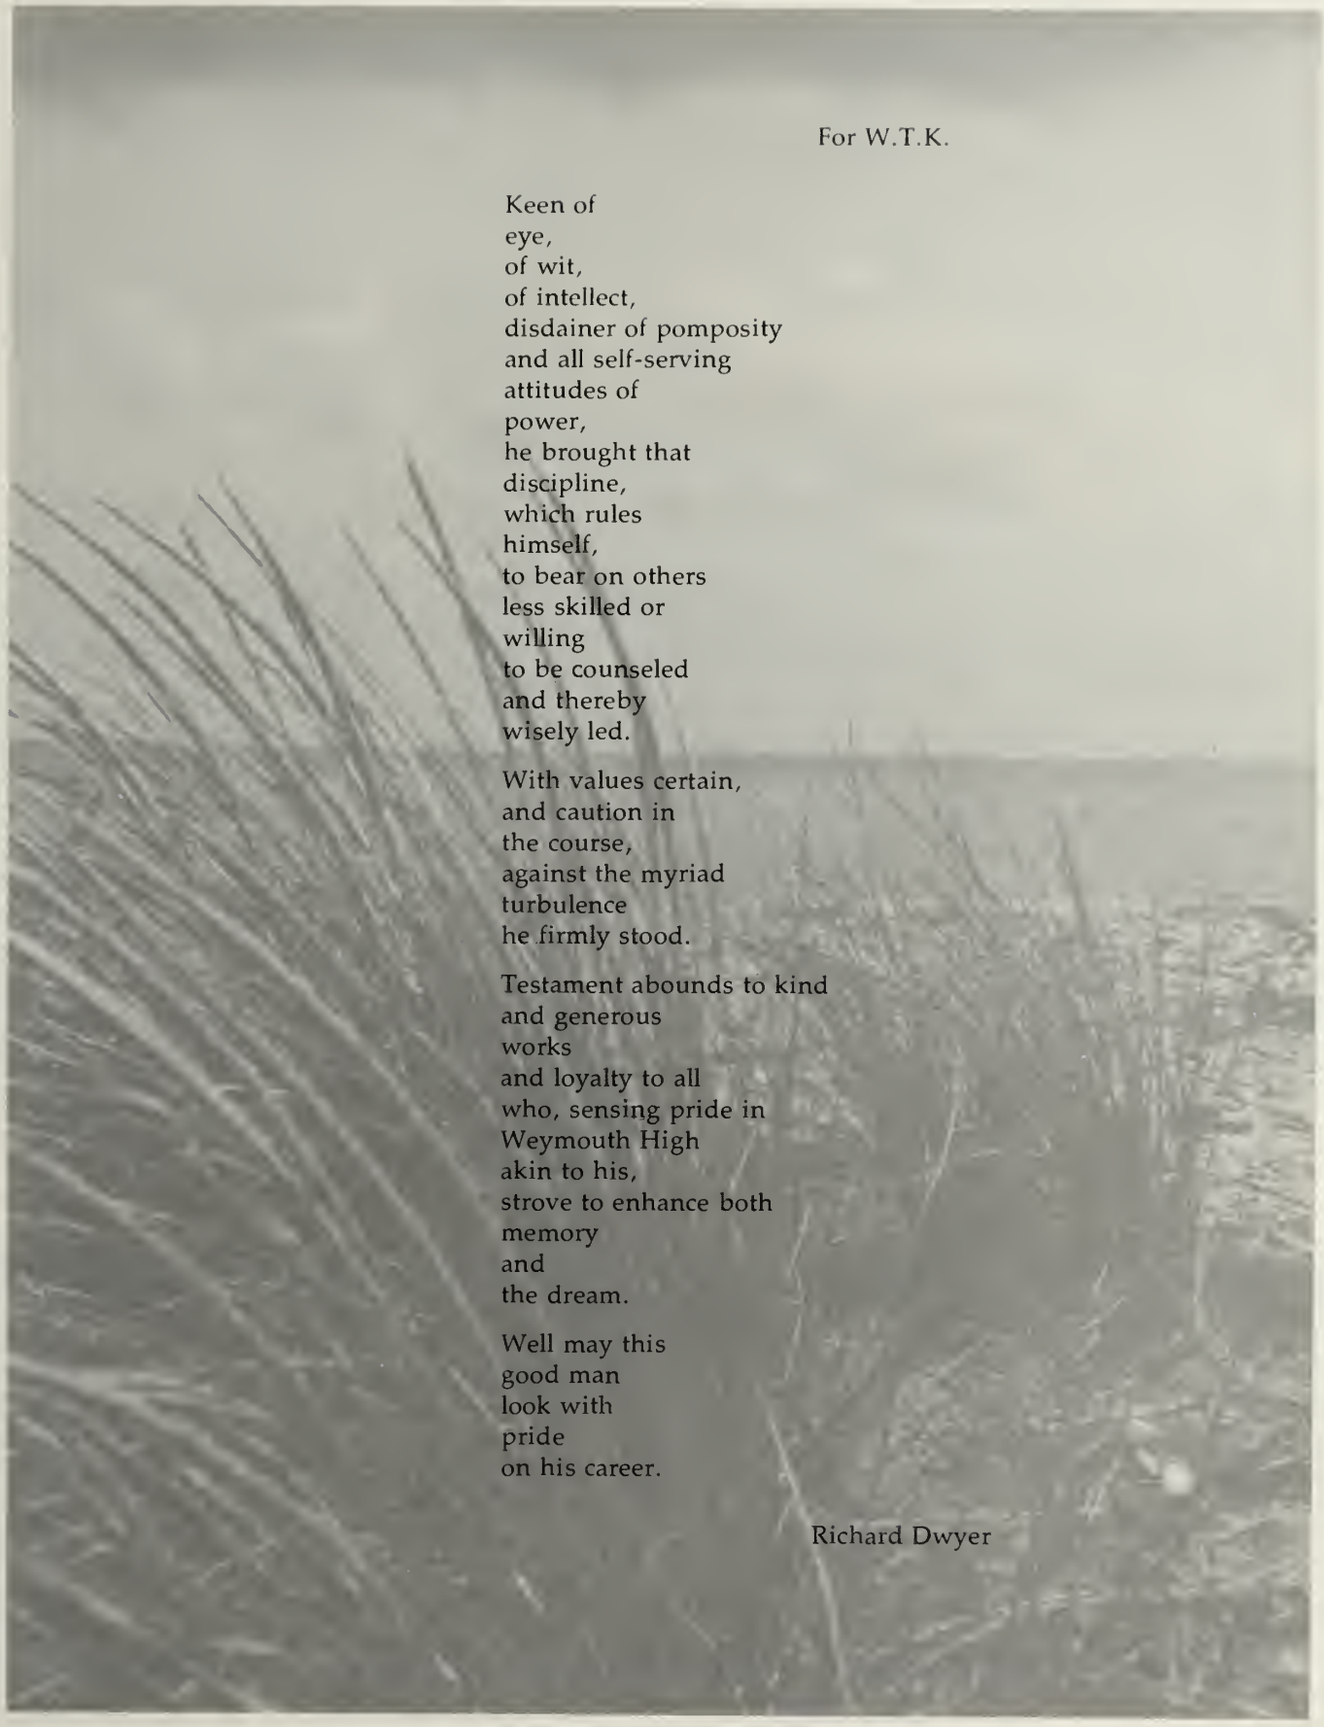
Many teachers spent more time working on extra-curricular activities than we did. And our teachers always had a far better record of completed homework assignments than we ever did! They could always brighten up our day with just three little words, "No test today!".

Their help, their guidance, their perseverance, and their friendship are gifts we will cherish, now and always.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY



William T. Kearns



For W.T.K.

Keen of eye,
of wit,
of intellect,
disdainer of pomposity and all self-serving attitudes of power, he brought that discipline,
which rules
himself,
to bear on others less skilled or willing to be counseled and thereby wisely led.

With values certain,
and caution in the course, against the myriad turbulence
he firmly stood.

Testament abounds to kind and generous works and loyalty to all who, sensing pride in Weymouth High akin to his,
strove to enhance both memory and the dream.

Well may this good man look with pride on his career.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Remember . . .

How some days consisted only of crowded corridors, cold lunches, and quiet studies? For some people the school day was always long and tedious. Yet other students felt there were too few hours in the school day to experience all they wanted. These individuals gave both their time and their spirit to Weymouth North. And their advisors smiled proudly when their efforts were appreciated.

For the musicians and the actors, the skiers and the writers, every day of school life will be remembered.

Yearbook

Recipe for a Fantastic Yearbook

Put in an art room

1 new teacher, sane but no telling what she will be like when she is done.

1 art teacher who would never let anything go out wrong.

A handful of students quite green in putting together a yearbook.

1 photographer who thinks he is as fussy as the art teacher.

1 publisher who comes smiling at deadlines.

First mix together the teachers and students until they blend together well, and cook until deadline.

Next take a smaller number of students to spread over more pages. Then turn up a radio that looks like it has been through World War III. Add a business editor who is convinced that no one will listen to him and as a result will never let us know if we are in the red. Blend together Dick Sweich garnished with three piece suit to take away the deadline.

Remove the photographer and beat well until smooth. Have a vocational editor and a photography editor almost destroy the art room. Add plenty of typographical errors. Never stop cooking even if there is a power failure due to snow. Simmer until well done even if lunch is missed. Substitute with store bought subs.

Add pages to desired consistency. Stir in nuts, confusion, smiles, jokes, determination, to add flavor. Send to publisher.

Serve: With a smile and crossed fingers.

Yield: 900 servings

College Bowl

Another victory to add to our "shining" year was that of the College Bowl. For the first time ever, the students defeated the faculty by an overwhelming score of 405 to 165. The faculty panels consisted of Miss Marilyn Anderson, Mr. Robert Dufault, Mr. Craig Morgan, Mr. Donald Gavin, and Miss Paula Babcock, Mr. James Egan, Mr. Joseph Thomas, and Mr. Paul Fuller. They were tough opponents but not tough enough to overcome the strong student panels of Don Dewar, Linus Kelly, Barbara Curtin, and Annemarie Connor on the first panel, and Janet Kerr, Anne Dalto, Joyce MacDonald, and Ron Evans on the second panel. Other participants included Chris Cunniff and Annemarie Reilly who served as the moderators, Mr. John Abbott and Mike Zunino as the judges, Mr. Ken Knowles and Debbie Dean as timekeepers, Jane O'Connor as scorekeeper, and Susan Powers as the coordinator.

Recall . . .

the exciting feeling that lingered in the locker room while we prepared for competition. A certain electricity bolted through our bodies as the event began. Even the spectators sensed our excitement. Whether we were competing individually or as a team the feelings within us never lessened.

During our past three years at North we have seen grea stars, and witnessed both magnificent wins and pitiful losses Yet we have always had teams that knew how to win or lose gracefully. This certain spirit is what all athletes must posses to accept defeat, strive for improvement and achieve success.

Thanksgiving Day Game

The Thanksgiving Day game was undoubtedly the highlight of the 1977 football season. Under the leadership of senior co-captains Bill Jackson and Tim Taylor, the Maroons put forth an outstanding effort to defeat our arch-rivals, the Weymouth South Wildcats, by a 7-0 score. Jackson provided the scoring early in the final quarter on a touchdown plunge and the point — after conversion. Sterling defensive performances were turned in by Arthur McHugh, Paul DeVincent, and Matt Pettograsso, while Ken Abbott contributed to the win with exciting offensive plays. It has been a three year wait for this coveted Thanksgiving win, but the thrill of this game has made it all worthwhile.

Led by Co-captains Ron Evans and Fred Allen, and complemented by seniors Scott Hayford and Ron Maltz, the Maroon harriers raced to a record of 3-6. Close meets with Newton and North Quincy kept us from a winning season. Junior Dan Sheehan highlighted the year by earning four top awards in post-season races, and by being named a Suburban League All Star.

Cross Country

1st Row — Co-captain Ron Evans, Dan Sheehan, Scott Hayford, Ron Maltz, Coach Paul Fuller. 2nd Row — Mike Putnam, Co-captain Fred Allen, Doug McCloud, Richard Norton, Joe Sullivan.

The Girl's Cross Country Team, led by Senior Captain Stephanie Garbarczuk, finished the season with a record of 4-4. Outstanding performances were given by Sophomores Audrey Donovan, Tracy Fitzgerald, and Karen Sheehan. While representing Weymouth North in the State Trials, Stephanie fractured her leg but crawled over the finish line!

Cheerleaders

It all began with tryouts,
A past memory.
Throughout the summer and winter,
Most of us
Worked together for two years.
We fought to endure camp,
And were shocked by winning evaluations.
We grinned through our corny
"Hog calling time in Nebraska."
We sweated and froze through games,
And prepared so long for parades.
We strove for more routines,
And better mounts.
Sometimes we became cascading failures.
We received our injuries one by one,
But we kept smiling through the pain.
If only others could imagine,
What we have experienced and learned.
Maybe then they would feel differently,
About the "name" we have earned.

Kneeling — Co-captains, Lisa Binney and Joanne Curran. Standing — Clare Gurnett, Kelli Hanifan, Karen Spain, Dawn Osborne, Elaine Phillips, Sue Ann Osborne, Gretchan Burchard, Cindy Gamble.

We had several key injuries that troubled us during the season, but we did earn respect in the Suburban League by giving good competition to league leading teams such as: Newton, Brockton and Waltham. Larry Crowley was our top rebounder and MVP of the Angelo's Tournament. Bill Johnson led us in assists. There were numerous clutch performances by Jim Sullivan, John Alexopoulus, and John Atwater. We look forward to the number of Varsity players who will return next year.

Most of our graduating seniors will be playing at Prep Schools and Colleges next year.

Weymouth North Hockey

Although the win-loss record of this year's JV Hockey team was not the best in recent seasons, the team played hard and improved. In the five year history of girls' swimming at North, we have never fielded a more enthusiastic and hard working team. Led by Co-captains Chris Cunniff and Carolyn Peruzzi, the girls showed a never ending desire for excellence.

The team's efforts were rewarded in the Suburban League Championships as they defeated Newton North for the first time by compiling a team record 112 points to Newton's 108. Amy Gabriel, Janet Miller, and Jane Miller captured twelve points at the Championships in the one meter diving event. All the girls broke the previous team record of 199 points for championship meets.

Despite a low total in the win column this season, the Boys' Swim Team did produce three of the best swimmers in the Suburban League: Tom Evans, Jason Edmonds, and Dan Smith.

Co-Captain Tom Evans has proven himself to be the best 50 yard freestyler and 100 yard back-stroker in the league. A record holder in both events, he will probably also capture the League record in both events at the upcoming Championships. Jason Edmonds was also a Co-Captain on this year's squad, and although he was injured for over three weeks during the season, Jason remained one of the league's best freestylers. Dan Smith also had an excellent first year competing in the butterfly.

Boys' Swim Team

Returning this September, it seemed as if everything was the same; everything but the fact that we were no longer "on the bottom of the totem pole." Being experienced in the "ways of North," we knew what this year had in store for us — or did we?

Junior Class Officers

underclassmen • underclassmen

How confusing the school seemed at first! The only way we could find our way around the school was with our noses in our handbooks. Even then we ended up against a concrete wall. It was tough getting used to being "the youngest" again, and stranger still having juniors and seniors in our classes. But somehow we managed to survive midyears and school lunches. With a few "battle scars" remaining, we prepared for our future years at North.

Foreign Exchange Students

Some people pass through our lives unnoticed. That, however, cannot be said about four very special people who have touched our lives this past year: Hannele Sundberg, Bodil Wahlstedt, Janeric Lofgren, and Hannele Oksanen. They have given insight into the customs and personalities of people of a different race. More importantly, they have given us their friendship, something which has made a lasting impression on all of us.

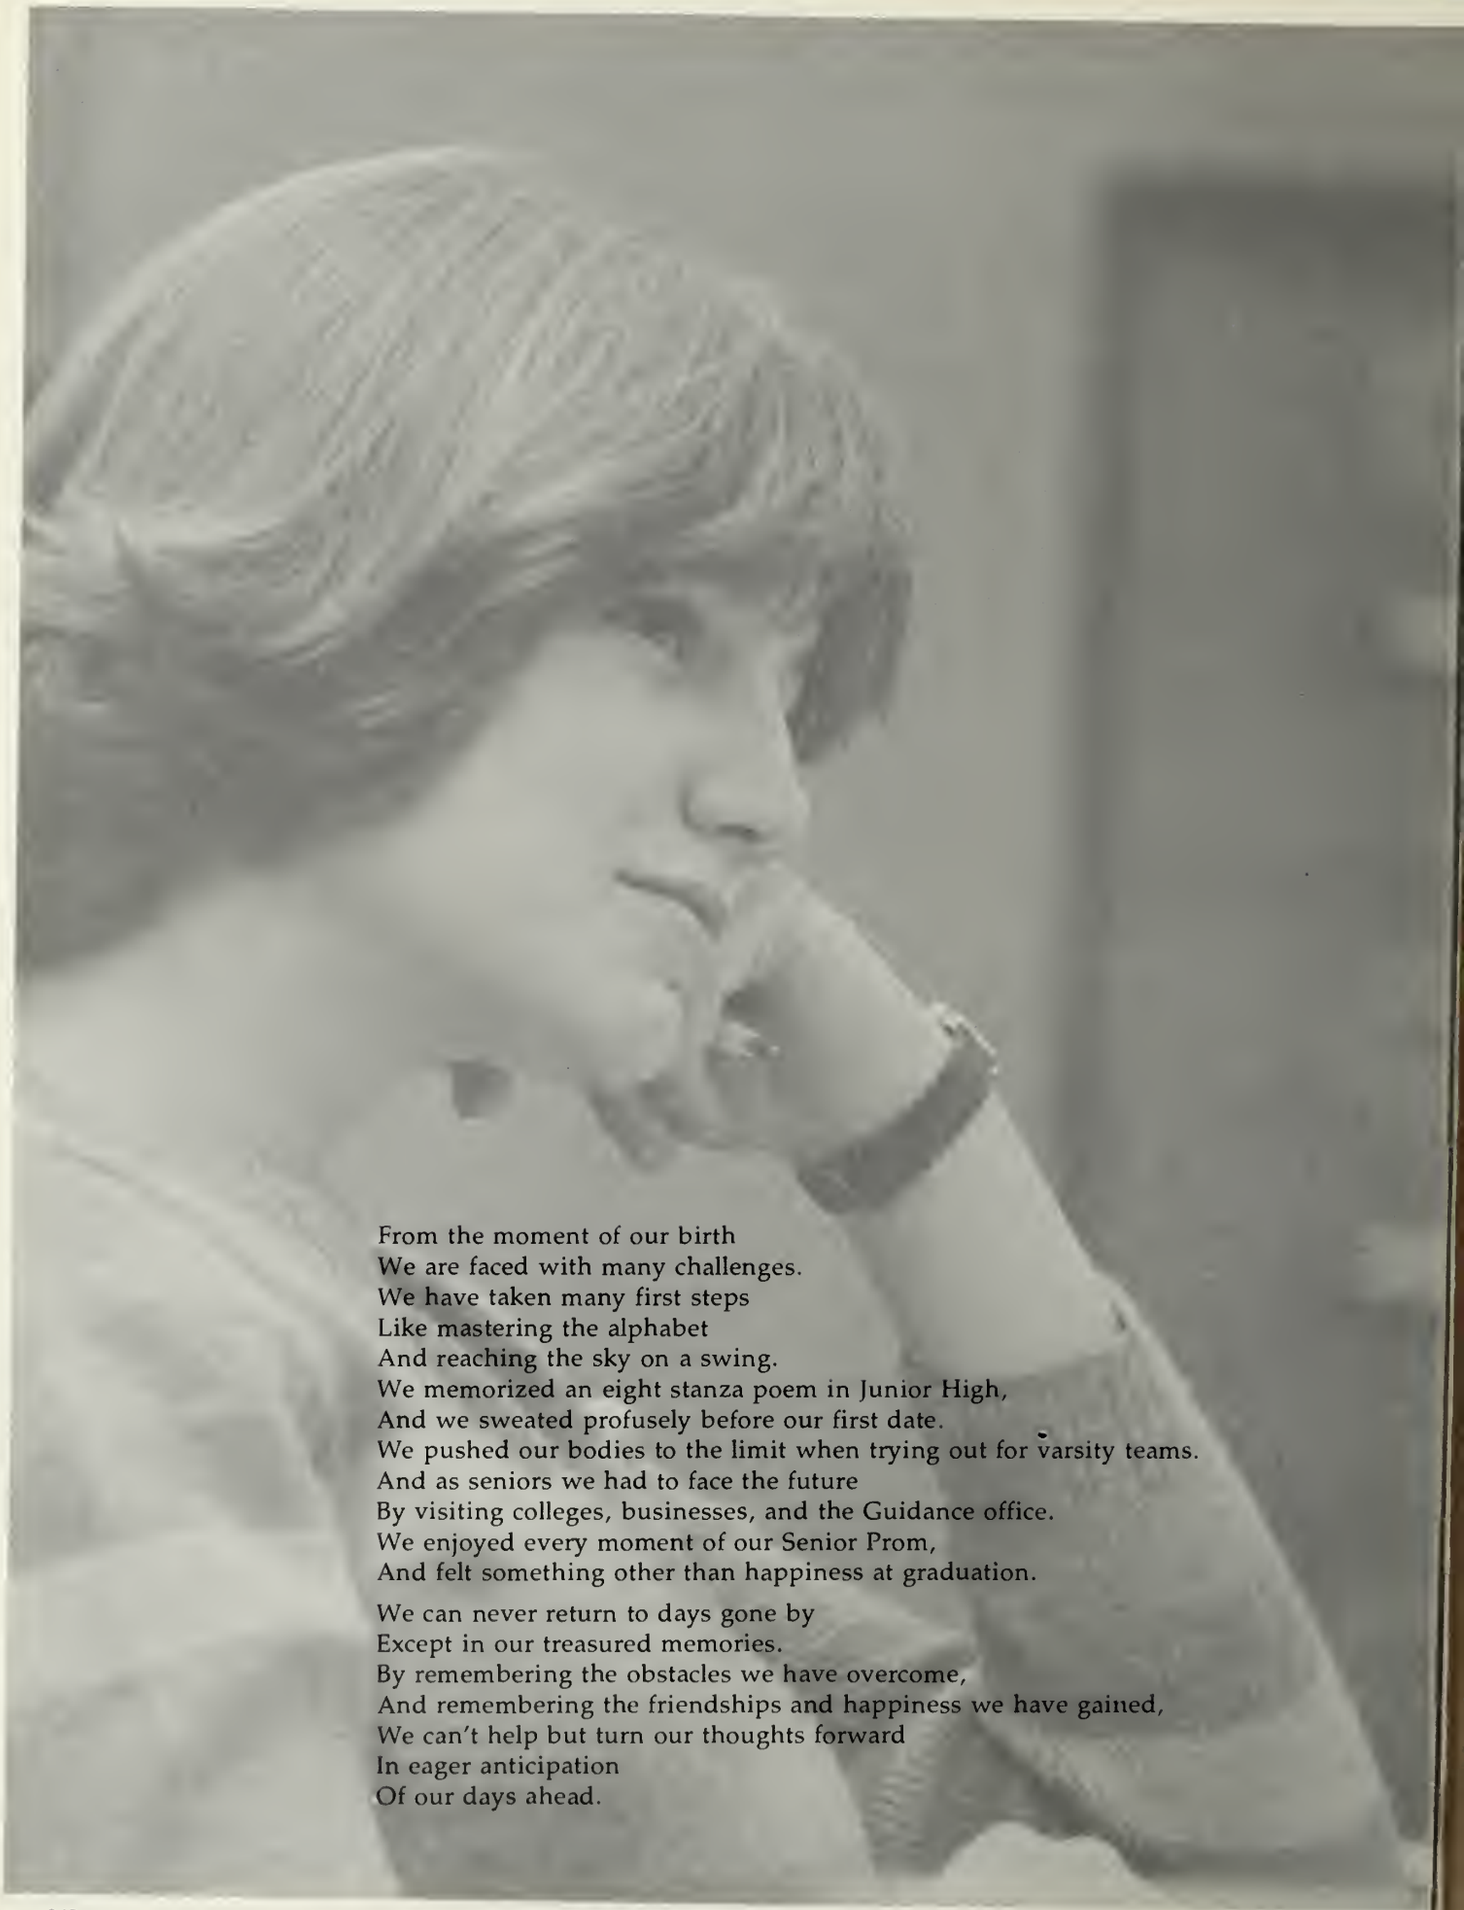
The Torch Is Passed

We at Weymouth North were fortunate to know Mr. Edward W. Knight, Jr. as an assistant principal. We were even more fortunate to see him become principal of our school this year. He is a sincere and dedicated administrator who believes in all of us. The class of 1978 wishes him success and happiness in his new endeavor.



From the moment of our birth
We are faced with many challenges.
We have taken many first steps
Like mastering the alphabet
And reaching the sky on a swing.
We memorized an eight stanza poem in Junior High,
And we sweated profusely before our first date.
We pushed our bodies to the limit when trying out for varsity teams.
And as seniors we had to face the future
By visiting colleges, businesses, and the Guidance office.
We enjoyed every moment of our Senior Prom,
And felt something other than happiness at graduation.

We can never return to days gone by Except in our treasured memories.
By remembering the obstacles we have overcome,
And remembering the friendships and happiness we have gained,
We can't help but turn our thoughts forward
In eager anticipation
Of our days ahead.
